General Manager Pritchett explained that he started in the gaming industry back in the early 1990s as a part-time blackjack dealer with Harrah's Entertainment and then with Caesar's. General Manager Pritchett said that his stint with Caesar's lasted about 27 years, opening up several properties with them. General Manager Pritchett helped with opening the Prairie Band Casino and was there for about nine years. That career path awarded General Manager Pritchett with experience in slot operations, table game operations, cage operations, casino bars, with overlay into marketing. General Manager Pritchett explained he was a part of a layoff in 2020 in response to COVID. General Manager Pritchett said he then joined WarHorse Gaming in Nebraska and was with them for about three years and helped open their first casino in Lincoln. After that, General Manager Pritchett joined Tin Lizzie in Deadwood, South Dakota as their general manager. After about a year, for personal reasons, General Manager Pritchett moved back to the Omaha metro area. Afterwards, this opportunity came through. Chairman Moses asked if during General Manager Pritchett's time with the Prairie Band Casino he had worked with the current Kansas State Gaming Executive Director Kala Loomis. General Manager Pritchett explained that he ended working at that facility in 2006. Executive Director Loomis noted that she took her position in 2006.
 - Commissioner Fleming asked if the facility has needs regarding non-leadership staffing. General Manager Pritchett said that he has learned that there has been some turnover, but it is levelling out. Further explaining, that the facility is right sizing the level of staff needed for appropriate operations; it's more of noting the critical times of business and then matching the scheduling to that. There is more turnover in the food and beverage positions. The gaming floor staff is pretty stable. There is some turnover in security and surveillance. Leadership roles are realigning with who is there and redefining what their role is and how it is covered.

Jeff Longwell, Chairman of Gilley’s Cares, reported:

- The charity added about $4,000.00 to their fund. The fund totals about $38,000.00.
- The board voted for the first time to fund a group that does something special for 9/11 first responders. The board is still determining the process to obtain approval from the commission. The donation will be in the amount $2,500.00.

STAFF REPORTS
(I.1)

Garrett Rogers, Paralegal, reported on both the Voluntary Exclusion Program and Sports Wagering Exclusion Program statistics for the month of March 2026, as well as the Quarterly Illegal Gambling Report.

Government Relations Manager Randy Evans reported:

- The bill regarding the Kansas Indoor Clean Air Act did not receive any hearings. Mr. Evans anticipates that it will be reintroduced next year.
- The bill regarding grey machines within gas stations was introduced but did not receive a hearing. Mr. Evans said he has heard the bill will be reintroduced and at a minimum receive a hearing.
- The bill regarding agency auditors for the Senate and House passed both houses. It was vetoed by the Governor; however, the legislature overrode the veto. Starting July 1st, both houses will have a full-time auditor to review agency spending. The auditors will have access to the state agency payment system to audit spending.
 - Commissioner Fleming asked if the auditors would review the same agencies just separately. Mr. Evans responded that they could. Commissioner Fleming asked if the auditors determine who and when they audit. Mr. Evans confirmed they do and explained that the Senate President will appoint the Senate’s agency auditor and the Speaker of the House will appoint the House’s agency auditor.

- The bill referred to as the “Halo Act” regarding a 25-foot parameter around law enforcement officers while they are dealing with a suspect or adversary. Mr. Evans explained that it would be a misdemeanor, up to $1,000 fine, and up to six months in jail.
 - Chairman Moses asked how broadly the legislation applies; does it involve KRGC agents. Mr. Evans confirmed that it does. Chairman Moses noted that the reason for his asking is because he read an article quoting an expert who provided testimony that the bill is unconstitutional, so he was curious if the bill language had enough specificity to avoid any constitutional issues. Mr. Evans responded that he was at the hearing and that he believed the expert was a representative of the media who believe that without an exemption for media personnel the legislation would be unconstitutional.
- The bill regarding antique slot machines passed the Senate but did not have a hearing in the House. Mr. Evans anticipates that the bill will be reintroduced next year.
- The bill regarding KRGC’s sports wagering regulations passed both the House and Senate and was signed by the Governor. There are two minor steps left before the regulations receive final ratification. General Counsel Bain explained that once the signed bill is enrolled and published in the Kansas Register, KRGC can schedule the final public hearing, 60-days notice must be provided. By the time the signed bill is published and KRGC can issue a notice of final public hearing, the public hearing will be held during the July 17th commission meeting. In between now and then are the public comment opportunity and the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules and Regulations to make their comments and receive public comments. On July 17th there will be an opportunity for that joint committee to make comments, after this commission presumably adopts the regulations on July 17th, there will be one last opportunity for the joint committee to comment. After that, the final regulations will be published and enrolled.
- Commissioner Turnquist asked if there was to be an amendment to the regulations what would be the process then. General Counsel Bain responded that the amended regulation that would need approval from the Department of Administration and Attorney’s General Office but could skip the legislative ratification because presumably any amendment would not change the economic impact of the regulations.

Director of Gambling DJ Lopez reported:

- As commissioners have heard, Gilley’s is undergoing a transitional period in management. KRGC staff have had meetings with Mr. Pritchett educating him on who the KRGC is, why it is here, and what it does. Staff will continue working with General Manager Pritchett on any MOU, policy, or SOP going forward. General Manager Pritchett is aware of the weekly status meeting and agrees it is a great way to communicate any issues.

- A contract has been signed between the Greenwood County Fair Association and Andale Construction for track surface work. There were a couple prerequisites set out by Andale prior to surface work beginning, such as the remainder of the safety rail being removed, any rodeo items removed, any light poles or power poles need removed and their electrical service terminated. All of that work is being done by volunteers as a cost-saving measure. There is a meeting scheduled between the Fair Association and Andale Construction for April 23rd for final preparation for equipment to move in and begin track surface work. According to Andale Construction track surface work should be completed in four months, barring any delays. A Duralock safety rail for the track has been ordered. Once the track surface work has been completed the new safety rail will be installed. Volunteer work continues in the barn areas, jockey room, racing office, and KRGC licensing office.
- An initial review of applications from the Greenwood Fair Association, board members, and Michael Weiss, along with a budget proposal for capital improvements and operational costs is complete. Director Lopez said he plans to coordinate with General Counsel Bain to ensure that KRGC is dotting its i's and crossing its t's.
- Eureka Downs is still shooting for a 3rd quarter eleven-day race meet. KRGC stands ready whenever Eureka Downs and the Greenwood County Fair Association are ready to race.
 - Chairman Moses asked once live racing is up and running will the facility provide a monthly report. Director White responded that the county fairs will not provide a monthly update due to the frequency of activity. Director White imagines there will be something preemptive and likely post-event report. Director White explained that they are required to do an annual audit when the county fairs are active. There will be some activity, but it will not be monthly.
- There is a total of 269 total Kansas-bred registrations. Previously, Commissioner Jones asked if the quarter horses were still dominating the program, they are. There are 222 quarter horses, 42 thoroughbreds, and five paints.
- Last month commissioners were briefed on a criminal indictment involving an individual by the name of Mr. Lam. This investigation was conducted by the KRGC Criminal Investigation Unit in conjunction with the Kansas Attorney General's Office. Mr. Lam has had a bond hearing and continues to remain out on bond. The case is now set for status conference hearing on May 15th at 10:00am.
- Another case Derrick Stubblefield was arrested and charged with seven felony counts of proxy betting, which is level eight non-person felony. Mr. Stubblefield had a preliminary hearing on April 15th which he was bound over on all counts. This case is now set for status hearing on May 14th at 10:00am.

Director of Administration, Audit, and Finance Brandi White reported:

- Regarding the KRGC budget, in conference the agency's $100K enhancement for HHR did get reinstated. The budget was approved as submitted.
- In March KRGC expenditures and obligations, the agency made a transfer of HHR revenue funds. The transfer was approximately $668,987.66. About $196,550.55 went to Horse Breeding Development fund, about $461,544.71 went to the Horse Fair Benefit fund, about $10,892.39 to the State Gaming Revenue fund. Director White noted that the Gilley's report on KRGC letterhead shows the fund balance as of the March date for each of those funds because there has been no disbursement from those funds.
- Chairman Moses noted that Gilley's charity board voted to award money to a charity and asked if the KRGC must now go through an approval process for that donation. Director White confirmed that the commission does have to approve the charitable donations and that the approval process is being ironed out and will be implemented quickly.

Executive Director Brownlee reported:

- KRGC staff joins commissioners in welcoming General Manager Pritchett and look forward to working with him and Gilley's staff.
- The next meeting is scheduled for May 15th at 10:00 a.m. here in Topeka at the Eisenhower State Office Building.

PRESENTERS: D.J. Lopez, Director of Gambling

ISSUE SUMMARY: Greenwood County Fair Association has submitted to the Kansas Racing and Gaming Commission an application, along with application approval of the Kansas Quarter Horse Racing Association and the Kansas Thoroughbred Association to run live parimutuel racing/wagering at Eureka Downs.

K.S.A. 74-8826 State Racing Fund

K.S.A. 74-8827 Racing Reimbursable Expense Fund

K.S.A. 74-8829 Horse Breed Development Fund

K.S.A. 74-8835 Racing Investigative Expense Fund

K.S.A. 74-8838 Horse Fair Racing Benefit Fund

Each of the above statutes noted statutes the chairperson/commission may appoint a designee to receive such requests and approve allocation of funds for these expenditures.

Since Gilley's Gambling Hall (HHR Racetrack Facility) has been in operational a 3% present tax has been leveled per statute on gross handle. A portion of this tax goes to funding KRGC's expenses for regulatory oversight of the HHR Facility and live parimutuel racing and wagering. The excess tax revenue and licensing/background investigation fees are then deposited into funds as required by statute.

COMMISSION ACTION REQUIRED/REQUESTED: Motion and Vote.

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS: Brandi White – Director of Audit and Finance be Appointed as Commission Designee
