COMMISSION ITEMS
– OLD BUSINESS;
AMENDED SPORTS
WAGERING
REGULATION
REVIEW (F.)

Staff Attorney James Bain presented the amended sports wagering regulations highlighting the amendments that occurred during the regulatory approval process. Mr. Bain noted that there was one requested change from Draft Kings from the packet that was provided to commissioners and the public. Draft Kings has requested that K.A.R. 112-204-4(a)7 be amended so that new pool mechanics be submitted fourteen days prior to the pool becoming active. Mr. Bain said he understood their argument to be that since the KRGC has a three-day window to approve the pool mechanics that the current 30-day requirement is too long. Mr. Bain further explained that currently the pool mechanic requests go to the Kansas Lottery and are not submitted to the KRGC.

COMMISSION ITEMS

STAFF REPORTS
(I.1. and I.2.)

Judith Taylor, General Counsel, reported on both the Voluntary Exclusion Program and Sports Wagering Exclusion Program statistics for April 2024.

Government Relations Manager Randy Evans reported:

- That there has not been any movement on the bills that the agency was watching.
- HB2622 regarding the Kansas Clean Air Act has not had another hearing.
- SB432 regarding sports wagering advertising has not had a hearing.
- The civil asset forfeiture bill did pass, and the legal department is reviewing that to determine how that will affect the agency.
- HB2532 regarding a 3% tax on HHR was vetoed by the Governor's Office due to how the 3% tax was distributed.
- In the omnibus bill there was a two-year proviso that directs the money to pay agency regulation fees first and the remainder of the money goes to the two horsemen groups.
- The Missouri legislature did not pass sports wagering this session. However, two groups, Winning for Missouri Education and a collaboration of six professional sports teams, are trying to propose a constitutional amendment that would appear on the November ballot. This is the same process the state used to legalize marijuana. The groups needed 170,000 signatures for the amendment to appear on the ballot and were able to collect 340,000 signatures. The Missouri Secretary of State's Office confirmed that they are currently reviewing the signatures. Once the signatures are verified, the amendment will go on the November ballot.

- Commissioner Fleming asked if there will be any organized opposition. Mr. Evans responded that in the articles he has read, there does not appear to be any opposition. Commissioner Fleming commented that the amendment is likely to pass. Mr. Evans agreed and said that he has read that if the amendment were to pass, sports wagering could be operating in Missouri by January 2025.
- Chairman Moses asked if Mr. Evans agreed that the initial impact will be in the Kansas City area, the Hollywood Casino area, and the Kansas Crossing area. Mr. Evans explained that there are several different sports wagering proposals; one is to have the books be tied to a casino, another would be to have the "skin" at the professional sports arena. Chairman Moses clarified that Mr. Evans meant that the wagering would occur at the actual venues. Mr. Evans confirmed that was correct. Chairman Moses noted that is not something that is allowed in Kansas and would be a significant difference if Missouri were to take that route. Mr. Evans agreed. Chairman Moses asked if there has been any chatter to revisit arena wagering in Kansas if Missouri were to pass it. Mr. Evans said not that he has heard.

Executive Director Brownlee reported:

- The computer issues that were reported last month have been resolved. The issue ended up being with a piece of equipment on the OITS side not communicating correctly with KRGC servers.
- In the last couple of months, compliance auditors have been out to all four casinos to review table games and cage operations.
- Staff Attorney Eleazar Rundus is working on HHR regulations.
- As Mr. Watkins indicated, KRGC staff met with Golden Circle management in Wichita and have agreed to have regular meetings to discuss regulations and operational issues. KRGC has shared the rough ideas on HHR regulations; mirroring regulations that KRGC uses on the casino side for facility operations. The Golden Circle team is reviewing those and comparing them to what their plans might consist of.

- Director of Security, Roger Bailey, has put together a tentative timeline for staff hiring and training as the agency gears up for the tentative opening date of September 2025.
- The amount of money that the 3% tax on HHR revenue is projected to be a substantial amount. A portion of that money will go to the Kansas horsemen groups whose intent is to update facilities in the Eureka area and begin running parimutuel horse meets. They believe that once the flow of HHR money comes to them it will be a significant attraction for horse breeders and trainers from all over the country to come to Eureka. That is all to say that in the distant future, we may be back in the horse business.
- Harrah's has opened a racino in Columbus, Nebraska earlier this week. This is the first permanent facility to open; it will have 400 slot machines, 11 table games, and horse racing. They anticipate opening in August. The three other temporary facilities are currently building out into permanent facilities. The permanent facility in Omaha is anticipated to open in August, the one in Lincoln is anticipated to open next fall, the one in Grand Island is anticipated to open sometime next year.
  - Commissioner Fleming asked whether each facility is a racino. Executive Director Brownlee confirmed that was correct, noting that the state also has five tribal casinos.
- The next scheduled meeting is June 14, 2024, in Topeka, KS.
  - Chairman Moses noted that he has a conflict for the July commission meeting. Executive Director Brownlee stated that the commissioners could decide during the June meeting what action to take regarding the July meeting date.
- Chairman Moses commented that he had run into the person who holds a position in the State of Louisiana that is akin to our Director of Licensing and Sports Wagering. Chairman Moses recalled discussing how their state handles HHR and has their contact to share with staff.
