PUBLIC COMMENTS
(H.)

Peach Madl, Interim Director of the Kansas Thorough Bred Association, shared that they and their organization are excited to bring horse racing back to Kansas. Ms. Madl said that a Kansas horse has not won the Kentucky Derby since 1938 and that it is time to bring a Kansas-bred horse to the Kentucky Derby. Ms. Madl thanked the commission, legislature, and the Governor's Office for their support and assistance. Ms. Madl noted that her family owns a farm on the Franklin and Douglas County lines, and they are excited to expand their agricultural business. Ms. Madl commented that she has a prospect filly who will be ready for racing in a couple of years.

- Chairman Moses asked if the filly had been named yet. Ms. Madl explained that the filly had been named after her granddaughter, Lyla Strong, who suffers from ewing sarcoma.

STAFF REPORTS
(I.1. and I.2.)

Garrett Rogers, Paralegal, reported on both the Voluntary Exclusion Program and Sports Wagering Exclusion Program statistics for the months of April 2025, and the Quarterly Illegal Gambling Report.

Executive Director Brownlee reported:

- The legislature bundled the vetoed bills and passed the veto overrides as a bundle instead of one at a time.
- The legislation regarding the Kansas Indoor Clean Air Act did not receive a hearing.
- Proviso language was added to direct the state's share of HHR revenue funds to pay the KRGC regulatory expenses and the remainder is split between the Kansas Horse Breeding Development Fund and the Horse Fair Racing Benefit Fund.

- The legislature also put provisional language in the budget bill that prohibits the Kansas Lottery from negotiating sports wagering. It prevents the Lottery from using state funding to renegotiate with the facility managers and/or sports wagering licensees during FY '25 and FY '26. Some media coverage has described that as dark days for Kansas, the reality is that the current contracts do not expire until August of 2027 which is after those fiscal years.
- In the budget bill there is a provision for a pay raise for most state employees at 2.5%.
- There was some language about state employees being forced back to work in the office. That is for full-time remote employees. KRGC in the Topeka office is more of a hybrid than full-time remote. KRGC is required to send a list of employees who would be affected to the legislature.
- This year is a carry-over year for legislative issues. Meaning that pending legislation is still active when the legislature reconvenes next January.
- Commissioner Turnquist asked about Director Lopez's presentation given at Seton Hall. Executive Director Brownlee commented that the reviews were very good and positive. It put KRGC in a good light to be represented on basically a national forum. Director Lopez is also the primary contact for horse groups and for parimutuel racing.
- Chairman Moses asked to confirm that the current sports wagering contracts expire in August of 2027. Executive Director Brownlee confirmed that was accurate. Chairman Moses noted that at some point the Lottery will need to renegotiate those contracts, but there will be legislative action between now and then. Executive Director Brownlee said that was true and that he believes that this will be worked out at least by next session.
- The next commission meeting is scheduled for May 16th in Topeka.
- Due to scheduling issues, the June meeting will not be in Dodge City. The June meeting will be held in Topeka.

There were no other items for discussion or motion.

Director of Gambling DJ Lopez responded to Commissioner Turnquist's previous question stating that his time at Seton Hall was very informative and that he was humbled to be selected to sit on that panel. Director Lopez said he hoped that he represented the KRGC well and that it was a good opportunity to inform new attorneys about the regulatory framework and licensing in Kansas.
